

Good News for Kenya!

According to so called 'experts' Monday 16th January is one of the most depressing days of the year, hence the nickname 'Blue Monday'!

Well, we have some good news to banish the blues - British Airways have special airfares to Africa, bookable by Tuesday 24th January for travel up to 30 September!

More good news: A Beach Management programme is in operation between Serena and Nyali in Mombasa. The initiative includes:

- Ensuring your safety and security whilst on the beach
- Ensuring clean and tidy beaches and opening lifeguard posts
- Controlling beach sellers to prevent harassment of hotel guests
