

Two new options in Tanzania

For 2010 we recommend two new safaris in Tanzania. Both are priced from less than £1,600, proving that great value safaris are available in this country.

'The 8th Wonder' visits Lake Manyara, Serengeti and Ngorongoro;
'Glimpses of Tanzania' visits Tarangire, Serengeti and Ngorongoro.
Fuller details are below.

Tanzania safari from £1419 • Fortnightly departures • Beach extensions

4✿ THE 8TH WONDER SAFARI

Lake Manyara – Serengeti – Ngorongoro

From £1419 per person

Valid 12 Apr to 24 May 2010

Includes return scheduled flights, transfers, game drives and 5 nights accommodation on full board.

All the lodges on this safari circuit have undergone an extensive refurbishment programme offering some of the finest safari accommodation in Tanzania. Given that all these iconic lodges command some of the best locations in their respective game parks, this itinerary certainly offers an unrivalled safari experience.

3✿ GLIMPSES OF TANZANIA

Tarangire – Serengeti – Ngorongoro

From £1559 per person

Valid 5 Apr to 17 May 2010

Includes return scheduled flights, transfers, game drives and 6 nights accommodation on full board.

Accommodation on this safari is at Tanganyika Wilderness Camps, which represent a unique collection of affordable permanent tented camps, mobile camping and lodges in Tanzania. The properties are all situated in areas of exceptional natural beauty, rich in wildlife and inhabited by spectacular local tribes.